Dental Hospital

Philosophy

Our Hospital will try to encourage the presentation of superior medical care personnel by the highest standards of performance against which all others are compared.

With

- We practice safe and high-quality dental care.
- We bring up a dental care person to be full of human nature.
- We provide preventive and comprehensive treatment.
- We contribute to society through the promotion of oral health.

Clinic

1) Clinic for Dent-Facilitated Growth and Development
Oral Orthodontics Orthodontics Orthodontics for the skills for the diagnosis and treatment of malocclusions of the maxillary and mandibular bones.
Pediatric Dentistry Pediatric Dentistry is concerned with the health and dental needs of children and adolescents.

2) Clinic for Concern and Function of Oral Function
Operative Dentistry Operative Dentistry and Endodontics provides restorations of teeth with dental caries, trauma, and fractures to prevent infection and maintain oral function.
Periodontics Periodontics is concerned with the treatment of gums and tooth support structures, and the prevention of periodontal disease.
Oral Pain Clinic Oral Pain Clinic is concerned with the pain, paraesthesia, sensory disorder or motoric area.

3) Clinic for Dermatitis and Maxillofacial Rehabilitation
Temporomandibular Joint Temporomandibular Joint offers the surgery for the correction of temporomandibular joint, pain, swelling, and malocclusion.
Maxillofacial Surgery Maxillofacial Surgery is concerned with surgical repair and reconstruction of the head, neck, face, and other body structures.
Prosthodontics Prosthodontics provides crowns, fixed or removable partial dentures and complete dentures to replace missing teeth and functional structures.
Maxillofacial Prosthetics Maxillofacial Prosthetics restores functions such as speech, mastication, speech, and swallowing that are lost due to cancer, trauma, or congenital defects.

Sports Dentistry Sports Dentistry provides the dental treatments for athletes and also fabricates face guards and mouthguards.
Speech Clinic Speech Clinic provides the training for articulation, phonetics, and voice.
Gerodontics Gerodontics is concerned with the general dental health of the elderly person.
Dental Sleep Medicine Dental Sleep Medicine is for patients with sleep apnea syndrome.
Ambulatory Anesthesia Service Ambulatory Anesthesia Service supports comprehensive dental care under conscious sedation.

Clinic for Persons with Disabilities
Clinic for Persons with Disabilities provides comprehensive dental care under medical supervision, including sedation and general anesthesia and other interventions.

Fresh Breath Clinic Fresh Breath Clinic is concerned with the examination, diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of patients with halitosis.

E) Clinic for Diagnostics

Oral Diagnostics Oral Diagnostics is concerned with the examination of new patients.
Dental Ozone Therapy Dental Ozone Therapy is for patients with gingival disease.

Clinic for Facilitating Growth and Development
Oral Orthodontics Orthodontics for the skills for the diagnosis and treatment of malocclusions of the maxillary and mandibular bones.

Clinic for Function and Rehabilitation
Operative Dentistry Operative Dentistry and Endodontics provides restorations of teeth with dental caries, trauma, and fractures to prevent infection and maintain oral function.
Periodontics Periodontics is concerned with the treatment of gums and tooth support structures, and the prevention of periodontal disease.

Clinic for Dermatitis
Temporomandibular Joint Temporomandibular Joint offers the surgery for the correction of temporomandibular joint, pain, swelling, and malocclusion.
Maxillofacial Surgery Maxillofacial Surgery is concerned with surgical repair and reconstruction of the head, neck, face, and other body structures.
Prosthodontics Prosthodontics provides crowns, fixed or removable partial dentures and complete dentures to replace missing teeth and functional structures.
Maxillofacial Prosthetics Maxillofacial Prosthetics restores functions such as speech, mastication, speech, and swallowing that are lost due to cancer, trauma, or congenital defects.

Sports Dentistry Sports Dentistry provides the dental treatments for athletes and also fabricates face guards and mouthguards.
Speech Clinic Speech Clinic provides the training for articulation, phonetics, and voice.
Gerodontics Gerodontics is concerned with the general dental health of the elderly person.
Dental Sleep Medicine Dental Sleep Medicine is for patients with sleep apnea syndrome.
Ambulatory Anesthesia Service Ambulatory Anesthesia Service supports comprehensive dental care under conscious sedation.

Clinic for Persons with Disabilities
Clinic for Persons with Disabilities provides comprehensive dental care under medical supervision, including sedation and general anesthesia and other interventions.

Fresh Breath Clinic Fresh Breath Clinic is concerned with the examination, diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of patients with halitosis.

E) Clinic for Diagnostics

Oral Diagnostics Oral Diagnostics is concerned with the examination of new patients.
Dental Ozone Therapy Dental Ozone Therapy is for patients with gingival disease.

F) Clinic for Antisepsis

Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology provides a full range of services including CT and MRI.

Clinic for Patients with Disabilities
Clinic for Patients with Disabilities provides comprehensive dental care under medical supervision, including sedation and general anesthesia and other interventions.

F) Clinic for Antisepsis

Oral Diagnostics Oral Diagnostics is concerned with the examination of new patients.
Dental Ozone Therapy Dental Ozone Therapy is for patients with gingival disease.

G) Clinical Facilities

Clinical Laboratory Dental Laboratory

Emergency Center for Infection Control

Dentistry Division of Surgical Operation

Center for Advanced Clinical Education

Center for Clinical Cooperation

Center for Dental Information

Centralized Laboratory

Section of Supplies Section of Hygiene